Commissioner's Activity report

Action Items from November 22, 2023 meeting

- Voted and approved paying the Bills
- Voted to approve resolution authorizing the issuance of Tax Anticipation Note
- Voted to approve addendum to contract with Luzerne Wyoming County Mental Health and Developmental Services to extend our agreement for services.
- Voted to accept the resignation of Carolyn Posten from Wyoming County Correctional facility retroactive to December 14, 2023.
- Voted to reappoint A. Stacy Huber and Glenn Layaou for another 5 year term on both the Housing and Redevelopment Boards. Because he owns a Section 8 apartment, Richard Wilbur must abstain from this vote and the appropriate abstention form has been signed.
- Voted to approve management and non union employee increases for 2024 to match the 2.75% increase that was voted on for elected officials.
- Voted to approve the hiring of Sydney Kostick as office manager in the District Attorney's office to the position formerly held by Crissy Aiken. This is a non-union position.
- Voted to accept the resignation of Ashlee Welles from Wyoming County Correctional facility retroactive to December 10, 2023.
- Approved Larson, Kellett and Associates to perform audit services for Wyoming County.
- Voted to approve C&Y standard contract
- Voted to hire Lindsay Butler as Telecommunicator Trainee
- Voted to accept resignation of Josh Sudigala as Telecommunicator Trainee retroactive to 12/14.
- Voted to put a bid in on the Presbyterian Church to be used as a senior citizen center. Cannot disclose the amount because others may be putting in a bid. If we get the bid, before accepting we will vote on acceptance and the amount of purchase. ARP funds will be used for purchase and renovation if successful.
- Voted to establish a retention and signing incentive for Children and Youth. Amount to be $2,000 paid June 30th and December 31st for current employees being retained and after 6 months and 12 months of employment for new hires
