Action Items from October 14, 2025 meeting

- Discussed and voted to approve payment of the bills
- Discussed and voted to approve Service Purchase Contract for Jerry Keebler for Recovery Day children's entertainment
- Discussed and voted to approve promotion of Cory Case to Corporal at the Wyoming County Correctional facility
- Discussed and voted to hire Amber Mozloom as Telecommunicator Trainee at the 911 Center
- Discussed and approved contract with RapidSOS for Voice, Text and Video Intelligence software for the 911 center. It is expected this will be approved by the state in the new budget as a statewide initiative and if not, Act 13 funds will be used as a public safety need
- Discussed and approved contract with ESRI for yearly subscription for GIS
- Discussed and approved resignation of Officer Kyle Davis from the Wyoming County Correctional Center

Action Items to be Acted on Today

- Discuss and vote to approve payment of the bills
- Discuss and approve upgrading 911 internet account due to excessively slow speeds on current plan. Cost $212.95 per month
- Discuss and approve resignation of Brenda Tarbrake from correctional facility

- Discuss and approve resolution supporting EMHR application to be designated as a National Heritage Area
- Discuss and approve letters of support for above designation to EMHR, Sens. McCormick and Fetterman and Congressmen Meuser and Bresnahan urging them to sponsor and support the application that requires a vote by Congress to be approved
- Discuss and approve IDIS Online Access Request for Christine Lathrop of Trehab to continue accessing HUD website for CDBG matters. This is necessary due to the recent resignation of Joshua Winn from Trehab who will be leaving at the end of the month.
- Discuss and approve proclamation declaring November as Fair Housing Awareness Month
- Discuss and approve resolution for annual Fair Housing fairness and non-discrimination policies that is an annual requirement
- Discuss and vote to approve to expand previously approved transportation funds to include transportation from the Tunkhannock School District to the Drop in Center.
- Discuss and vote to approve expenditure of $10,000 to Interfaith for Christmas dinner giveaway program dependent on the funds from the Department of Ag not being timely because of the budget impasse. If the budget is approved and the funds are received early enough, this expenditure will not be necessary
